

ML Strategies Health Care Preview - Week of March 4, 2019

March 04, 2019 | |

As Congress continues its oversight of prescription drug prices, the Senate Finance Committee will also examine abuse and neglect at nursing homes. Meanwhile, the House of Representatives is looking at ways to lower health care costs as it keeps its eye on lowering drug costs as well. The focus and intensity around drug pricing is not expected to diminish anytime soon. For our complete health care preview, please click here.
